My dear Sir

I am glad to think you are a letter in my debt now, as I think your last, for which I heartily thank you, reached me, before my long one arrived with you.

At present I have no time, but just to send our love & to enclose a few lines for my Sister. If she has left Litch, I suppose you will know when to forward it to her.

The Lord bless you & keep you. Remember me to Sister Janet, if she is still in the Body -

I am, in great haste
Your affectionate & obliged

John Newton
