GENERAL INFORMATION

Ideals

Seattle Pacific College is a unique institution in that it meets all the educational requirements of students through college, high school and the grades under influences distinctly Christian. The school stands for efficient workmanship and leadership based on character. Scholarship, culture, courtesy, efficiency and co-operation are the ideals that dominate the activities of the institution. Self-reliance, uprightness of life and dependableness characterize the personal side of the educational training.

History

Seattle Pacific College is the outgrowth of Seattle Seminary which began its work as a preparatory school in March, 1893. The Seminary was made possible largely through the generosity of two Seattle men, N. B. Peterson, who gave the original campus, and H. H. Pease, who furnished much of the means for the erection of the first buildings. In 1910 classes of College grade were organized and, in recognition of the advanced work, the Trustees, in March, 1915, changed the name to Seattle Pacific College.

The College is incorporated under the laws of the State of Washington and is the property of the Free Methodist Church. It is co-educational and non-sectarian. The twelve trustees are elected by the Washington, the Oregon, and the Columbia River Conferences.

Location

Seattle Pacific College is situated on the northern slope of Queen Anne Hill in the city of Seattle, the metropolis of the Northwest, and one of the most beautiful environed cities of America. Majesty is in its surroundings and health in its very atmosphere. Its parks and playgrounds, lakes and bays, and scenic boulevards delight the tourists from all parts of the world, and furnish students many a healthful recreation in hikes and outdoor sports. On account of the evenness of the climate and the attractive surroundings, Seattle Pacific College is an ideal place in which to live while acquiring an education. Its large campus of eight acres, artistically arranged and set with ornamental shade trees, flowers and shrubbery, many winding walks and paths, make it one of the beauty spots of the city.

Students coming to Seattle by train will take the Meridian or Wallingford car at depot, transfer to the Fremont-Ballard car line, and get off at Third Avenue West. The campus is one-half block south. Reduced rates on transportation of baggage from the depots to the College may be obtained by bringing truck checks to the College office.

Buildings

THE ADMINISTRATION BUILDING is located in the center of the 8-acre campus and is a modern structure of pressed brick. In this building all the activities of the school are centered. Here are the large assembly hall, chapel for religious worship, office, library, laboratories and recitation rooms, all well equipped.

THE YOUNG LADIES' HALL is of modern architecture and new. It is located at the extreme north of the campus and faces one of the main avenues. In this building are a large parlor, beautiful reception hall with tiled floor, large dining room with fireplace and mantel, music room and sleeping rooms. The bedrooms are provided with large windows, have hot and cold water, and are lighted by electricity.

THE YOUNG MEN'S HALL is a substantial four-story brick structure. The rooms are large and pleasant. The building has forty rooms, a pleasant parlor, and is furnished with bath tubs and shower baths. This building is located at the south of the campus and commands a view of the grounds and other buildings.

A GRADE BUILDING well adapted for the junior work has been erected separate from the other buildings. Careful attention has been given to heating, lighting and to ventilation.

THE CHILDREN'S HOMES—The younger students are well provided for in homes separate from the older students. Teachers and matrons supervise the care of the rooms, clothes and recreations.

Library

The library is located in the administration building and contains over twelve hundred volumes of choicely selected reference works. The students of the College have in addition, easy access in the city to libraries of over 300,000 volumes.

Laboratories

The College is provided with physical and biological laboratories. A chemical laboratory is being provided to meet the growing needs of the institution. Equipment is being provided sufficient to meet the needs of a general education and for the professional preparatory courses in chemistry, physics and biology.

Government

Students are encouraged to exemplify the ideals of the College in their conduct. The students are brought in daily contact with the members of the faculty. They mingle in class rooms, in social and religious gatherings, in the dining hall, and upon the grounds. Students of injurious habits or bad influences are not permitted to remain as members of the school family. It is not so much the desire of the promoters to have a large enrollment as it is to have young people of sterling worth and high ideals. With this end kept constantly in view it would be difficult to find a place where higher ideals of life are maintained by the student body. The students learn self-control and self-responsibility by exercising self-government. They appoint monitors to keep order during the recitation periods and the noon hour, and deal with infractions of proper conduct.

Religious Life

The College always emphasizes the importance of a definite religious experience. The promoters believe that the training of the intellect is not the sole function of an educational institution. They believe in experimental and practical Christianity. They recognize the importance of heart culture as the fundamental principle upon which any system of true education must rest.

The Bible has a prominent place in the instructions of the school. Family worship is conducted each morning and evening in the dining room. Devotional exercises are held each morning in the Assembly Hall. A religious service conducted by the president of the school is held on Tuesday evening in the College chapel. A students' prayer meeting in one of the recitation rooms is held on school days at 8:00 A. M., and a number of prayer bands meet at 4:00 P. M. for personal service. Special religious services of several weeks' duration are held during the year.

Social Life

One cannot well escape being in society. It is part of an education to learn to conduct one's self correctly in the presence of others. Christian courtesy is most essential to the success of the Christian worker and is attractive and desirable in every walk of life. A mere formal etiquette may be cold, but one who has not learned correct manners is but partially educated.

In order to aid in the formation of correct poise, frequent talks are given on proper behavior in the various situations in which one may be placed. Social evenings are held occasionally under the care of the faculty. These gatherings are marked by all the proprieties of such events and are exceedingly helpful in forming proper social habits and in creating a free and pleasant social atmosphere.

Dress

The College does not prescribe a uniform dress. Its influence, however, will be exerted in favor of plain and economical attire. In the interest of modesty and simplicity students are requested to refrain from the wearing of jewelry while in school. College life does not call for display and good taste disapproves it.

Absences From College

It is the aim of the College to make the students thoroughly at home and to prevent in every way any dissipation of their interest in study. To this end the earnest co-operation of parents and guardians is solicited. Students should be sent promptly at the beginning of the term, and after they have entered they should not be removed even for a day. Because of their distracting influences, social or week-end visits are discouraged. Frequent absences from study, no matter for what purposes, make progress impossible.

Student Affairs

THE ASSOCIATED STUDENTS is an organization composed of all the students of the College and Academic departments, the Seventh and Eighth grades, and the members of the Faculty. This organization, under the supervision of the President and Faculty, has control of general student affairs, such as rhetoricals, missionary work, athletics, the business management of The Cascade, intercollegiate debates, and oratorical contests.

THE CASCADE is a magazine published and printed by the Associated Students of the school. The regular subscription price is $1.00 for the school year.

Physical Training

Physical education under the guidance of the College physician and directors is provided daily. Teachers and students are encouraged in out-of-door exercises, military drills and games for the sake of pleasure, recreation and good health. Inter-collegiate athletic contests are excluded, as they are usually detrimental to good health and scholarship. The Seattle Pacific College ideal in athletics is systematic open-air exercises and games in moderation for all students—in brief, daily physical training as a habit of life.

Boarding Department

This department is under the direction of the instructor in Home Economics. The kind and amount of food and the method of cooking best suited to the health of the students is provided. The students are trained in diningroom service and etiquette. A quiet, cultured and homelike atmosphere characterizes the department. Students from abroad are required to board in the institution. Proper care of the health and social training make it advisable for students to room and board on the College campus.

Assignment of Rooms

Old students have the preference in the assignment of rooms in the order of classes. New students are assigned to rooms in the order of application. Where it is desired, the President will give special attention to the selection of room-mates, so as to meet the wishes of parents in this important matter. Two students occupy each room, but there are a few smaller rooms which may be occupied by one student alone. In such cases an extra charge of $2.50 to $5.00 a term is made.

Furnishings

The rooms are furnished with bedstead, mattress and springs, and such other furniture as is necessary for comfort and convenience. All bedding, pillows, rugs and carpets, curtains, and bric-a-brac must be provided by the patrons. Students should bring plenty of bedding and such articles as shall make their rooms tidy and beautiful.

Each student should also bring necessary toilet articles, towels, table napkins, etc.

Regulations

It was the purpose of the founders of the Seattle Pacific College to offer young people a thorough education under Christian influences. As a Christian college, it aims to develop manly and womanly character and to train students for lives of effective service.

The institution does not desire the attendance of any students who are not industrious and well disposed or who are too wayward for home restraint. The use of liquor or tobacco is strictly forbidden. To such as are earnest, it affords the advantages of a quiet and orderly community with all the opportunities of study and mental development afforded by any well organized school.

Students are presumed to have regard for the general rules of good manners and good morals; they are expected to be orderly. faithful, respectful and honest and to render a cheerful compliance with such regulations and requirements as the faculty may, from time to time, find it necessary to make.

We regard the commingling of young men and young women in an educational institution as helpful to both; yet it should be remembered that the demands and proprieties of school life will not permit the same social privileges as might be allowed in a private home. While observing the ordinary usages of politeness, students should refrain from such association with each other as will attract attention. In all these matters high Christian ideals constitute the standards of conduct.

The ultimate control in all matters pertaining to the conduct of the students is in the hands of the Faculty, and students not conforming to the ideals of the institution will be dismissed.

Work for Students

It is the policy of the institution to encourage those students who find it necessary while in attendance at school to work in order to pay necessary expenses. The college furnishes students a limited number of places for work.

Owing to the low rate charged for room and board, all boarding students are required to render one hour of service per day. Those who wish to do more than the required amount will be paid for overtime. The rate paid and the amount a student may earn will depend on the age, and strength of the student and the amount and quality of the work done. Students who are temporarily absent must provide substitutes to do their work during each absence or pay 25 cents per hour for each hour of service neglected.

Under regulations approved by the faculty students may work in the city a limited amount of time outside of school hours. Students who work for part board must be at the college one day before college opens and must remain one day after the regular work of the school closes.

ACCREDITED SCHOOLS: Students from schools accredited by the state university are admitted to the Freshman class without examinations, provided they file with the President a certified list of subjects for which they have received credit in a preparatory school.

ENTRANCE BY CERTIFICATE: Certificates from principals of other high schools or academies will be accepted when satisfactory evidence is presented that the grade of work in these schools is equal to that done in our own preparatory school.

MATURE STUDENTS, ordinarily only such as are at least 21 years of age, may be admitted as special students to courses for which by ability and preparation they may be fitted. Special students are not candidates for a degree.

ADVANCED STANDING: Students coming from other colleges whose requirements are substantially equal to those of this institution may be admitted to advanced standing on credentials signed by the proper officials and giving full specifications concerning the nature of the courses taken, the time spent in each and their ranks in each subject.

They are assigned credits on the basis of their credentials but such assignment is provisional until ratified by the committee on credits. Students entitled to such advanced standing should enter not later than September of their senior year.

If, by examination or by certificate, a student presents more than fifteen units of commended work for admission he may, upon formal application, receive College credit for certain subjects, provided that these subjects or others closely allied, have been continued in College with high grade.

The total requirements for the bachelor's degree is 132 semester credits, including physical education, and 132 quality credits. One semester credit is given for the satisfactory completion of work equivalent to one recitation a week during one semester. For quality credits see page 31.

The courses of study are arranged in the following groups, any one of which leads to the Degree of Bachelor of Arts.

- 4. PSYCHOLOGY—Philosophy 1 must be completed during the sophomore or the junior year.
- 5. BIBLE—Bible 1 and 2 should be completed before the junior year.
- 6. PHYSICAL EDUCATION—Amounting to one credit per semester for six semesters, is required of all students.

For graduation, students must earn 132 quality credits as well as 132 semester credits. Quality credits shall be reckoned on grade standings as follows:

A grade of A will receive 2 quality credits for each semester credit.

- A grade of B will receive 11/2 quality credits for each semester credit.
- A grade of C will receive 1 quality credit for each semester credit.
- A grade of D will receive 1/2 quality credit for each semester credit.
- Quality credits in excess of 132 will be counted as semester credits on the basis of 8 quality credits to 1 semester credit.
- Semester credits carned shall not exceed 10 credits, nor shall such credits exempt a student from meeting group requirements.

Students deficient in quality credits may substitute semester credits on the basis of 1 semester credit for 8 quality credits. No transfer of quality or semester credits shall take place before the middle of the junior year.

In grading—A=95-100; C=80-39; D=70-79;

The choice of a major subject and the writing of a thesis prepare the student for specialization in graduate or professional work. The requirement of fifty credits in one group familiarizes the student with co-ordinate fields of knowledge. The twenty-five credits from each of the other groups introduce the student to the main divisions of modern culture. The requirement of quality credits stimulates good scholarship. These constitute the main functions of a College of Liberal Arts.

Semester Hours

Except in cases of Seniors, students are not permitted to carry more than 17 hours, unless they have attained a general average grade of 90 or above during the preceding semester.

Students having obtained the privilege of carrying more than 17 hours per semester will forfeit the privilege whenever they fall below a general average grade of 85 for a semester.

PROFESSIONAL SCHOOLS

I. BIBLE INSTITUTE

Rev. William Frame Clark, A.B. Principal

BIBLE INSTITUTE

Seattle affords unusual opportunity to students who are preparing for Christian service. The greatest Bible teachers of America visit the city from year to year for a few days of intensive Bible study and evangelism. Some of the greatest of them are on our list of Bible Institute workers. The city missions afford a variety of opportunity for practical work in evangelism, Sunday school teaching or supervision and Gospel singing. Some of the regular weekly services of Olive Branch Mission, the largest mission in the city, are conducted by students from the College. There are many calls for young men from the Bible Institute to minister in churches in the city. Those preparing for the foreign field have the privilege of associating with returned missionaries from Japan, China and India and may make a beginning in the study of the languages, if they so desire. Japanese and Chinese students attend the College, who are glad to exchange instruction in their languages for English. There are also Chinese and Japanese missions in the city where students may become familiar with many characteristics of the Oriental peoples and, by the knowledge thus gained, save much time on the foreign field.

The courses offered in our Bible Institute prepare students for Christian work as Bible teachers, evangelists, Gospel singers, ministers, missionaries and Sunday school , and religious secretaries. Throughout the various courses special emphasis is laid on the careful study of the English Bible and on practical and sound methods of Christian work.

COURSES OF STUDY

Courses are offered that meet the educational preparation of students. Those who have completed a high school course and wish to secure the large training and broad culture of a College education may pursue their Bible studies in connection with the Liberal Arts course. They may elect this work in the Social Science Group majoring in Philosophy and Religion (see page 28) and receive the Degree of Bachelor of Arts on completion of requirements. High school graduates who cannot take a full College course may pursue a two years' diploma course that parallels the first two years of the degree course. This course will furnish them considerable instruction in the Bible and in practical methods of Christian work and still count towards the degree course, should they find it desirable to complete the courses sometime in the future. Briefer courses are also offered for students that have not completed a high school course, but desire to prepare as quickly as possible for active and practical Christian work.

The requirements for the two-year diploma course are the same as the first two years of the Bachelor of Arts Degree course.

Electives

In the selection of electives students are given the opportunity to choose the subjects that will best meet their individual needs in the preparation for their particular line of Christian work. They may broaden their field of knowledge by additional courses in the Languages, Sciences or History, or they may select practical courses in Public Speaking, Gospel Singing, Bible Pedagogy, Nursing, Elemental Medicine, Home Economics, Accounting, or in field work in Sunday schools or city missions.

III.-Certificate Course.

This course is open to any who have not completed high school or academic work and to such as do not care to take the Biblical Languages and the Collegiate Liberal Arts studies as outlined in the Degree or the Diploma courses. It is for those who feel their opportunity and time limited, but wish to make themselves more effective in any of the varied forms of Christian activity.

The course covers two years, each year of which is / complete in itself. This course may be arranged for by correspondence by those already in active Christian work. It is strongly advised, however, that those who have had no Academic or Collegiate training in residence become resi-The atmosphere of the College, the asdent students.

sociations of the student body, the practical training in Christian worship and work, offer a vision not to be obtained by home study. Other advantages of resident study are: Library facilities, religious conventions and other diversified forms of religious work centering in a great metropolis.

Missions

The entire curriculum of the Bible Institute is designed to train young men and women for Christian work. The courses meet the demands of the Mission Boards. The electives afford the modification of training suited to the varied field of mission activity.

Sunday School

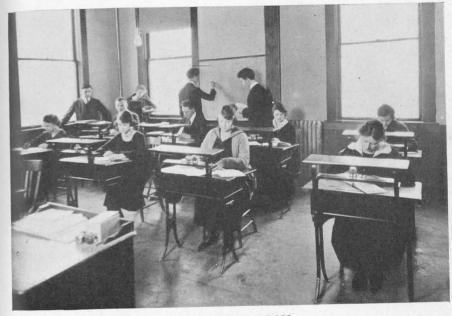

The Bible Institute affords men and women opportunity to prepare for practical Sunday school work, such as: Organization, management, graded lessons, promotions, teachers' training work, teachers' meetings and surveys.

Practical Christian Work

Not only self-improvement and knowledge are essential but effective service as well. Students must learn by doing and in the field of Christian service the student must keep foremost the winning of men for Christ. Students report on the Christian work they have done in Sunday school, jail or hospital vistitations, missions or evangelistic services, altar work and personal interviews. Suggestions are offered and difficulties considered.

Music

The courses of Music accredited in the Bible Institute are designed to prepare young men and women as Gospel singers and directors of congregational singing. For subjects taught in Music, see School of Music.

SCHOOL OF COMMERCE

The School of Commercial Science of Seattle Pacific College offers to ambitious young people a means of making a good living in the training they will receive in dispatch, system, persistency and other character building qualities that make the distinction between persons who get ahead and succeed and those that merely get along or fail.

III. SCHOOL OF MUSIC

Jessie A. Cowan Principal Myrl Parsons Wilson Associate Principal

SCHOOL OF MUSIC

The best place to pursue musical studies is in a School of Liberal Arts, where special training may be supplemented by general culture. It is the purpose of the Department of Music to give its students thorough technical training as an element in musical education, and in all this, to aim at the same achievement, which is the end in view of Seattle Pacific College—culture, character and practical efficiency. The courses of study are broad and sound and demand not less serious, whole-hearted and sustained application than is expected in the collegiate and academic departments.

PIANOFORTE

Preparatory

A course normally occupying three years, designed to qualify for admission to the collegiate course. At the completion of same the student is expected to show satisfactory knowledge of musical notation and elementary nomenclature, of all scales and arpeggios, with the ability to execute them at a moderate tempo. The student must also have a literary knowledge of the composers listed below, or the full equivalent, and be able to give, from memory, a representative recital.

BACH—The Magdalena Bach Clavecin book.

- HAYDEN-Sonatas, G major, 2-4; D major, 4-4 moderato.
- MOZART-The easiest sonatas in C major, and F major.
- MENDELSSOHN-Kinderstuecke op. 72, and easiest numbers of the Songs Without Words.

SCHUMANN-The Jugendalbum.

Collegiate

- (a) Structural, memory, technical, critical and interpretative study of a satisfactory group of works by classical, romantic and modern composers. The presentation of a typical program made up from this group, containing compositions by Bach, Hayden, Mozart, Mendelssohn or Schumann. (Typical pieces, first year, Mozart G major sonata, Mendelssohn Song Without Words No. 15). Sight reading and maintenance of a repertoire.
- (b) A second year continuing pianoforte. (a) A program containing works by Bach, Beethoven, Chopin. (Typical pieces, second year, Beethoven op. 10; No. 3, Chopin Nocturne in B op. 32). Repertoire and sight reading.
- (c) A third year continuing pianoforte. (b) A program containing works by Bach, Beethoven, Schumann or Chopin. (Typical pieces, third year, Hayden E flat Sonata 44, Schumann Novelette in E). Repertoire and sight reading.

DIPLOMA—A diploma will be given on the satisfactory completion of the Collegiate course.

Lessons

The practice of musical technique is much too intricate and difficult to be adequately guided through weekly or semi-weekly lessons. Such lessons are largely occupied with the correction of preventable blunders—a process disheartening both to teacher and student. The scheme is neither pedagogic nor business-like. The student ought to have the privilege of conference with the teacher whenever he is in a difficulty and the teacher ought to be able to see the pupil as often as, in her judgment, he needs assistance in daily work. This is the solution which the department of music is able to adopt and happy results will follow. Students have the privilege of consulting the teacher daily upon all practical problems arising in the course of their study. It is practically a daily lesson scheme, and offers a great opportunity to the ambitious student.

ORGAN

Ample facilities for organ instruction and practice are given and courses are offered leading to hymn and choral playing and include harmony and counterpoint.

VOICE

The College wishes to place special emphasis upon the importance of cultivating an appreciation of good music. All students are encouraged to take part in public singing. All are requested to take the elementary preparatory course because of the cultural value and the physical benefits that result from a knowledge of correct habits of breathing and the proper control of the voice in singing and public speaking. Gospel work is kept constantly in mind in the voice culture.

Preparatory Course

INTENDED FOR—(1) Persons who wish to discover and test their musical ability before taking up special study; (2) those of proved ability who wish to qualify as directors of public singing, bands, orchestras, glee clubs and similar organizations; (3) and those who wish to qualify as leaders of community singing and Gospel song work.

OUTLINE OF COURSE—Reading music in all major keys; ear training through six modulations; a thorough understanding of all dynamic marks, movement marks, repeat marks, embellishments, tie, slur, syncopation, triple, single and compound accidentals; the use of the baton in conducting; double, triple, quadruple and sextuple measures; also compound, triple and quadruple.

The course also includes a study of the fundamental principles of the use of the voice in singing and speaking. This involves instruction in correct breath control, correct tone placing and the right use of the fifteen vowel sounds of the English language.

PREPARATORY SCHOOLS

THE ACADEMY

The academy seeks to combine the advantage of the high school and of the preparatory school. Many students enter high school with no intention of going to college, and often when they have been stimulated to continue their education find the courses taken have failed to prepare them for college entrance. Here we offer liberal substitution for commercial and technical studies, but insist that every course shall include such studies as are necessary for college entrance.

The advantage of taking the preparatory work under the influence of a thoroughly Christian College cannot be too highly estimated. The entire environment, during the early adolescent period when life-habits are forming, cannot be chosen with too great care. In this department earnest effort is made to exert the most helpful physical, moral and spiritual influence upon every student.

Admission

Admission to the academy is granted upon the completion of an amount of work equivalent to that required by the eighth grade of the public schools of Washington as published by the State Board of Education.

Candidates coming from graded schools must present certificates or diplomas, officially signed and showing the amount of work done and the credits gained by each study. Those who have made preparation in ungraded schools, or under private tuition, may be required to pass examinations equal in grade to those required by the State Board of Education.

ң А

Applicants not personally known to some member of the Faculty are required to furnish testimonials of good character, and if from other institutions must present certificates of honorable dismission.

Graduation

Sixteen units are required for graduation in any of the regular academic courses outlined in this catalogue, one unit being the equivalent of five recitations per week for one year in one branch of study.

A student will receive a diploma of graduation, who has fully completed the work in one of the regular courses of study and who, having been regularly promoted to the Senior year, shall receive no mark lower than 70 in any required subject of that year. No diploma will be given for less than one full year's work in the school. An equivalent amount of work done on any part, or the whole of the first three years of a regular course will be accepted, on proper evidence, for work done in the school.

A diploma will not be awarded to a student whose course of study is not fully completed, and whose bills are not fully paid.

As a requirement for graduation, students must have uniformly high standings in deportment, in punctuality and in class work.

It is the purpose of the institution to place a premium on good scholarship and morals, and any one who shows a disposition to become delinquent in these respects will be obliged to sever his relations with the institution.

Grading

Grading will be indicated hereafter by figures. A standing of 70 is necessary to obtain credit for any study pursued.

The relative rank of a student is determined by the instructor who computes it from the work during the semester and the examinations. In large classes ordinarily the students are ranked in four groups in the order of merit. The first group includes those whose standing is marked 95 or more and should not include more than 10 per cent of the entire class. The second group includes those whose standing is marked from 80 to 94 and should not include more than 50 per cent of the entire class. The third group includes those whose standing is marked from 70 to 79. The fourth group includes those whose standing is below 70, the passing mark.

Honors

1. Banner students shall include all those students who have an average attendance, class and test standing of 95-100 and who do not fall below A in dependableness.

2. Honor students shall include those who have an average attendance, class and test standing of 90-95 and who do not fall below A in dependableness.

3. Dependableness includes deportment, courtesy, loyalty, method of doing work, promptness, honesty, etc.

4. Reports of standings will be given to students at the close of each term.

5. No student will be permitted to take more than four regular subjects, except in case of scniors, unless he has an average of 90, or above. Students permitted to carry five subjects will forfeit the privilege whenever their average grade falls below 85.

Expression

The department recognizes that expression is an outer result of an inner richness of life. Its purpose is to furnish training that will enable its students to have and give expression to noble thoughts. Attention is given to development of bodily grace, proper breathing and correct tone production.

The student who applies himself diligently may come to possess a well modulated and resonant voice, a distinct articulation, and ease and grace of bearing which in themselves are greatly to be desired.

The proper study of the art of expression will make the family circle, and the social circle more desirable; the business man more successful, the teacher more instructive, and the professional man more impressive. Pleasant tones of voice and agreeable manners gain friends, win confidence, secure custom, inspire pupils, and delight audiences. To Parents and Guardians

The discipline of the school is firm but kind, formative rather than punitive. It is directed to the formation of correct habits and right principles.

The work of the school is thorough and practical. The spirit of earnest endeavor and honest pride in one another's success pervades the place. The moral tone of the school is high. The best evidence of these and other advantages of the school is to be found in the loyalty and good opinion of its neighbors, patrons and alumni.

To realize the highest possibilities of the future, it is necessary to have the right start. Not so much the number of years, or the precise course pursued, but the spirit of cheerful and faithful work, the self-control developed, the self-denial exercised, the power of steady application acquired-these will decide the real strength of the man or woman of after years.
