Dear Sister Andrus:

When I saw this poem on the cover of a CALL TO PRAYER some time ago, I thought immediately of the mothers of our Oregon missionaries. How we thank the Lord for them and their faithfulness in prayer down through the years.

We feel that it would be a great honor to be a "missionary mother" but we know, too, that there are many burdens connected with it that noone else understands or bears.

We are so thankful for the work of Jake and Florence for the Lord. It was such a joy to be in their home and share in their vision and burden. How we thank the Lord that He answered their prayers (and yours, I know) and sent them a Japanese pastor and that they will be able to go ahead and build. It is going to be a joy to have them here for their furlough so soon.

May the Lord bless you and Brother Andrus as you share in the burden of their work and the work of the Kingdom around the world.

Yours in Him,

Margaret Miller
