OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

December 9, 1950

Mrs. H. B. Andrus
215 Park Avenue
Salem, Oregon

Dear Mrs. Andrus:

After these many months the book I have been working on concerning Jake and his life is completed. I have never had any greater joy along this line than the privilege I have now have of sending under separate cover a complimentary copy.

Everyone who has seen the book is greatly pleased. I am sure you will receive much inspiration, joy and real satisfaction as you again relive some of those faith-trying days and then days of victory and triumph.

I have thought of you many, many times as I have prepared the manuscript. Your fidelity, faith and courage throughout the years have been real inspiration to me. We do thank the Lord for Jake and Florence and for their wonderful ministry the Lord is able to carry forward through them. I am hoping that this book will be a source of missionary inspiration to many people.

We extend to you and Brother Andrus our best regards and greetings of the season. I am writing Helen a personal letter.

Yours in Christ,

C. Hoyt Watson
President
