

Transcription of the handwritten post-script

Monday P.M. : Last night when Jake returned from his services He said that one of the guards from the Nanking prison was there. After Jake spoke the guard spoke a few words. He claims that he is the one who gave the Bible to the fellows. He is coming here this P.M. to take some pictures. We are praying that he will be saved soon.