

Dear Folks,

I'm away [sic] past due for a letter to you. I've just put the children to bed and folded my laundry

Jake leaves tomorrow morning by plane to attend the Doolittle reunion in Florida - He has mid-term tests next week so it's a busy time for him.

We are all well. John had his tonsils + adenoids out on April 2nd. He hated staying in the hospital but got along O.K. and is fully recovered now. Paul is getting so big. He sings in the Operetta next week at school. Mark just can't wait until he can go to school. He is learning to read already. They are all in the Easter program at S.S. [Sunday School] in Lexington + also the Vesper program here in Wilmore. John's class sings in the P.T.A. [Parent Teacher Association] program tomorrow. We bought an old piano the other day and Paul + John will begin lessons next week.

It continues to rain, rain, rain here. I'm getting so tired of mud!! [sic]

Jake hasn't received his full summer schedule yet but it looks like he'll be traveling alone during June + most of July so the youngsters + I will be here in Wilmore. The last part of July and most of August we'll be traveling with him. We plan to be at the Iowa Camp so will try to find some time to see you all then.

When is Phyllis' school out and what does she plan for the summer? Would it be possible for any (or all) of you to spend a wk. or so with us in June or July? We'd love to have you!! [sic]

Last week-end [sic] we all took a trip to the Mts. again to a school operated by the Holiness Association.

We had an interesting time.

How is everyone at Toddville?
We don't hear from any one much.
Guess that I should write more.

I'm still losing weight (137) My clothes are all too big for me. I bought two new ones the other day (drip-dry cottens [sic]).

The boys have 5 more weeks of school. They are getting rather anxious for school to be out.

How is Toddville doing with their S.S. [Sunday School] attendance. We are having a contest with a nearby Church but are 5 behind so far.

The quartette [sic] from Greenville [Greenville College] is to sing here this Sunday. We have revival mtgs. with Bro.
Northrup as evangelist next month.

I must close. Will be looking forward to hearing from you soon.

Love,

Florence
