Dear Folks,

I just received Mom's letter yesterday. It was good to hear from you but I was shocked to hear about Fran. Did she go off with someone else or just living alone or what?? We shall be praying for her and Junior + boys. I'm glad that he has Margaret to help them out.

Yes, we have sold our house but the lady who bought it doesn't want possession [sic] until January so we are going to stay and let the boys get as much school as possible. We still don't have our definite sailing date so can't say for sure when we will be in Toddville but it will probably be around the middle of Dec. Bro. French wants us for a mtg. at Farmington so will stop there on our way up. Jake thinks that we'll probably only stay about two days as we don't want to wear folks out + our time will be limited. We don't know yet whether we'll drive out west or take the train.

Jake left yesterday for four days mtg. in Indiana. Carol went with him so it seems quiet + lonesome around here. They will be back Monday and we will pack our things next week. We wish that you were here to be with us for awhile. You better hop the train to Lexington or have Dad bring you down. You could ride back with us.

We have all had nose colds, even the baby. Otherwise she is fine. She is growing and since she was five weeks old has slept through the night. She notices things now + smiles a lot.

Rev. + Mrs. Bullis were here week-end [sic] before last. They want to go back to Japan but so far she can't get medical clearance.

The boys are fine and enjoying school. Paul built a telegraph the other day + took it to school. John is just like a [sic] old woman when it comes to taking care of the baby - he can feed her + rock her to sleep.

Mark keeps his guardian angel busy keeping him from getting killed as he does things first and thinks afterward.

He is doing real [sic] well in school, though. Is [sic] in his 4th book in reading.

I made out a big order for under-wear, socks etc. the other day but still have some shopping to do for clothes.

We haven't had time to think about Christmas yet - we may spend it on board ship. We hope that you folk won't spend a lot of money on us as we just want to see you all and have a good visit. I don't know whether we'll be able to see Phyllis or not. Is she coming home for Christmas vacation?

If so when?

We're having a beautiful fall. I would like to get outside + enjoy it more.

Bye for now

Love

Florence
