Dear Folks,

It is time to be getting supper [sic] but Jake wants to mow the lawn first so I thought that I could at least get this letter started.

It surely has been hot here today and I did my washing and ironing both so am just a little tired this evening. Jake had to speak at a W.C.T.U. [Women's Christian Temperance Union] meeting this P.M. but I couldn't go with him as I have to watch the neighbors [sic] baby for them from 3 'til 6.

We finally got our house all Kem-toned [sic] and it really looks nice. We have most of the house-cleaning done too but still have some wood-work [sic] and windows to wash. I ironed my kitchen curtains today so they are all ready to go up.

Tomorrow morning [sic] we are going shopping. It has been quite a while since I've been down town [sic] to do any shopping. Last week we were surely rushed trying to clean house and go to the World Wide [sic] Missionary Conference. It was certainly wonderful to hear missionaries from all over the world and from over 50 different mission boards. It was interesting to meet the different ones and to hear their experiences.

Jake has only 1 ½ more weeks of vacation. This month has surely gone fast. Are you still planning [sic] on coming out? We're looking for you and have your room all fixed.

-Page Break-

I guess that we're all prepared for the baby too. The Faculty [sic] women had a shower for me the other night and I certainly got a lot of nice things. Every one [sic] is surely good to me. I'm still feeling fine but don't see how I can ever wait another whole month.

I received a long letter from Marjorie Allen today. You know that she was a missionary in Syria didn't [sic] you?

Jake is still kept [sic] busy with speaking engagements. I guess that, if possible, he's been busier this vacation than he is during the school year. He is just as sweet as ever though and I still think that I'm a pretty luck girl to get such a good husband.

I suppose that you folks are busy too. Did you do much canning this year? Is Margaret home now? How do you like your new preacher?

Well, I've been gone every-night for over a week now so think that I'll try to get to bed a little earlier tonight. Write soon and tell me your plans.

Love and prayers to all,

Florence + Jake

P.S. received a letter from Maxine

Stoll the other day.

She said that you
gave her my address.
