

I was glad to receive your recent letter and to hear all the news. My Homer and Sadie really are getting up in years aren't they. But the Grandmother of the home where we lives [sic] has them beat a little. She is 88. She can do fine sewing without the use of glasses, in fact she has good Eyesight and hearing [sic] and doesn't seem the least bit feeble. I guess that She is just a little bit childish. Paul surely does like her and calls Her "Obasan [sic] which is the Japanese word for Grandmother.

You asked who the baby looked like.

I think that he looks like Paul did

-Page Break-

when he was a baby but Jake says he looks just like Dad. – Perhaps you can tell from the pictures which I sent to Mom. If John's cold is better we plan to go to Chaplain Hayes' on Friday for a late New Years [sic] get together.

Write and tell me about your Christmas.

Did you go to Glens?

I am feeling fine but could stand some more sleep. I'll be glad when the baby gets his days and nights straightened out.

I must close as he will be wanting to eat soon.

Love to all,

Florence, Jake
