SUBJECT: Delta Meeting

I really appreciated your comments at the last Delta meeting on the six characteristics of a good leader. If you have those written down with your comments on each one, I would greatly appreciate it if you would send me a copy so I could share it with my leadership team here.

The six characteristics listed in Mr. Pollard's speech notes are:

1. A God-seeker -- not a God shunner.
2. More selflessness than selfishness.
3. One who initiates and implements rather than one who waits and worries.
4. One who is candid with himself and others -- not superficial, devious or condescending.
5. One willing to risk failure himself.
6. One having the spirit of independence without the malady of autonomy.
